Notification on the Issuance of E-Commerce Permit or License

The Ministry of Commerce (“MOC”) is pleased to inform individuals, sole proprietorships, legal entities, and branches of foreign companies that, pursuant to the E-Commerce Law (“Law”), Sub-Decree on Classification, Formalities and Procedures on the Issuance of Permits and Licenses to Intermediaries and E-Commerce Service Providers and Exemptions, and Prakas No. 290 on Issuance of E-Commerce Permit or License, individuals, sole proprietorships, legal entities, and branches of foreign companies who are conducting business via electronic platforms are required to apply for an E-commerce permit or license from the Department of Business Registration of the General Department of Commercial Services of the MOC.

Subsequent to the Law, Sub-Decree, and Prakas of MOC entering into force, the MOC has conducted numerous workshops on the dissemination of these particular regulations. To effectively implement these particular regulations, the MOC calls on the relevant persons including individuals, sole proprietorships, legal entities, and branches of foreign companies to obtain an E-Commerce permit or license from the Department of Business Registration of the MOC from the date of this notification onwards.

The applicant may apply directly at the Department of Business Registration of the MOC or through this portal: www.ecommercelicensing.moc.gov.kh.

Any individual, sole proprietorship, legal entity, or branch of foreign companies, who conduct business via electronic platforms without an E-commerce permit or license shall have their operations ceased and be liable for monetary fines as stated in the applicable laws and regulations.

The applicant may download the application forms, formalities, conditions and other required documents from the website: www.businessregistration.moc.gov.kh or from the MOC’s website: www.moc.gov.kh. For more information, please contact the Department of Business Registration of the MOC directly or via the following phone numbers: 096 9 632 363 or 088 6 083 082 or 092 886 688 or 088 6 667 778.

As aforementioned, may the public be informed accordingly.

Thank you!
